Achieving Your Dreams: Starting Early to Help African American Children Develop a Vision of Their Dream Careers (Paperback)

By Cajetan Ngozika Ihewulezi

Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Every child has a dream that must be achieved with personal discipline, education, prayer, and hard work. Seeing the importance of growth, development, and success of African American children, author Cajetan Ihewulezi has created a successful solution through his first-hand experience. Achieving your Dreams guides every child in the African American community to start early in life by making wise choices. Ihewulezi offers his personal story and other stories to make every African American child understand that they can achieve anything they want. By first stimulating the mind to set solid goals, Ihewulezi then lays out an extensive guideline to follow in order to achieve the success that he talks about in his book. He gives hope to every child in every situation. This book provides informative, straight-forward, hands on strategies for students of different ages. -Lisa D. Smith Helping a child choose a career as early as possible, even if it is tentative, helps the child to focus on the foundation necessary for a future profession. -Dr. Richard C. Dickinson Beginning right is the best...
