Dominic Szymanski, O.F.M., Conv. is a classic source of information about the devil and exorcism. An American priest exorcist has told us it is the best source he has read on the subject. The influence of evil spirits in human affairs is far greater than most men are willing to admit. Although God has created all things to His own glory, the Evil One exerts all his tremendous powers to frustrate this plan of God by claiming creatures for himself. The almighty God does not stop the Evil One any more than He stops a human being from committing murder or any other sin. God triumphs over the malice of the devil by turning evil into good. Adam and Eve sinned in Paradise through the influence of Satan. God did not prevent this sin, but provided a Redeemer who assumed human nature and elevated it above the Angelic Choirs - so much so that the Angels adore the Humanity of Christ. Indeed, God turned this great evil into a greater good. Ubi abundavit delictum, superabundavit gratia. (Rom. V. 20 And where sin abounded, grace did more abound.) The Holy Scriptures clearly depict this influence of the Spirit of Darkness in the beginning of the human race. This same influence of evil intervenes in the life of every human being. God created man to His own image, and claims as His own all who bear this stamp of God s likeness. The devil strives to destroy this likeness to God in the human soul by inducing man to sin, and thereby substituting his own likeness. God does not prevent...
