Hemenway, Van Voorhis, Burkett, Livingston, and Underwood, in Charge of Deficiency Approbations for 1904 and Prior Years on General Deficiency Bill 3. The increasing of pensions for total deafness. 4. The restoration of widows, dependent mothers, or dependent sisters who had married. 5. The increase of pensions to those who lost limbs in the service of the United States. 6. The increase of pensions to Mexican war survivors. 7. A very large number of special acts bearing high rates of pension. 8. In addition to the foregoing the Bureau is doing much more work than usual, and the result is a great many more rejections and a great many more admissions and certificates. This increased amount of work in the Bureau accomplishes the finishing of a large amount of delayed and accumulated business. The foregoing has necessitated for this current fiscal year at least two and a half millions more than the estimates, which were made long in advance of the fiscal year. When the estimates for the fiscal year were made it could not be presumed what legislation would take place, nor could the effect of recent and pending legislation he accurately determined, so therefore it was that on March 1 of the present fiscal year it was found, as above stated, necessary to call for two and a half millions more of money to meet the requirements of the year. Since that time Order No. 78 has been issued, which is the order establishing an age limit for pensions under the new law, and it is estimated that a million and a...
