Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Little Lessons, for Little Learners: In Words Not Exceeding Two Syllables Come here, my dear Fanny, get your spelling-book, that you may learn a lesson, and then read to me this morning. You know this is Monday, the first day of the week, in which we may work, sing, and play, or do any thing that will amuse or instruct us. You will, therefore, I hope, repeat your lesson as soon as you can, that you may read some of the pretty stories I have got for you; but you must take pains to be correct in reading, and not confuse yourself by calling the words wrong; for if you do you will never know what you are reading about, and thereby lose all the meaning of the stories, so that you will be no wiser for what they may contain, nor be able to tell your brothers and sisters what they were about.
