SAGE Publications Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Understanding Teaching and Learning in Primary Education, Mike Carroll, Margaret McCulloch, Successfully training to teach in primary schools requires a careful understanding of a broad range of practical and conceptual issues in education and an awareness of how to intelligently apply these to teaching. This textbook supports your initial teacher education by providing guidance and insight into the professional knowledge and understanding, skills and abilities, and values and commitments necessary in order to succeed in the primary classroom. Coverage includes: *View from practice boxes in every chapter exploring real-life examples of intelligent and engaging teaching in schools *Thinking points and reflective questions challenging you to critically engage with what you have read and apply it to your own teaching *Links to further reading connecting you to specialised literature on every chapter topic * Clear discussion of education policy differences across the UK. Mike Carroll is the PGDE (Primary and Secondary) Programme Leader and Director of the MEd Professional Learning and Enquiry programme in the School of Education, University of Glasgow. Margaret McCulloch is a University Teacher within the School of Education, University of Glasgow.
