Raging Firestorm: Australian Firefighters Battle Largest Wildfire (Paperback)

By MR Frank Richard Taylor

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .They can see the glow of fire from thirty kilometers away as they approach the town of Narrabri, from the north, the very air they breath is thick with smoke and carried by the wind are the remnants of burned timber, ash, and leaves are floating on this now deceptively gentle breeze. If they listen carefully they can hear this monster breathing, sucking in oxygen from the surrounding air, they all know from experience that this is not going to be easy, they have done it before and none of these battle hardened veterans in these crews are underestimating the challenge that is ahead of them. This true-life action is set against the backdrop of Australia s largest ever wildfire that has so far proven to be unstoppable it is now burning through hundreds of acres of The Pilliga the largest area of natural scrub and old growth timber in New South Wales Australia. when asked for assistance by the New South Wales State Government forty firefighters from QFRA Queensland Fire Rescue Authority answered the...
