Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Three Sermons Preached in the North Congregational Church: New Bedford, Mass Fast Day, April 13, and Sunday, April 16, 1865 I had intended, notwithstsnding the character of this day as a day of penitence, to congratulate you upon the recent glorious victories of our past. I had proposed to compare the present and the past. But yesterday s intimation of the President, that he will soon issue his call for a day of national thanksgiving, causes me to defer such an expression. Wait for that thanksgiving a little longer: you have patiently waited four weary years already, and now, every week is a week of new triumphs. Our warfare is well nigh accomplished; our iniquity is well nigh expiated. The double punishment for our sins, is almost closed. Then will I speak comfortably to Jerusalem. But before that day comes, let us look once more at our eventful illustrations of the truth that national sin must have its expiation in national suffering. Well nigh accomplished. The sin is nearly expiated and forgiven, - for that...
